

Principal's Attestation

Directions: The Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) of 2015 requires that the principal of each school with a Title I program attest in writing as to whether the school is in compliance with the requirements in Section 9214 of the law. These requirements are as follows:

1. All teachers teaching in a Title I school must meet the State's definition of "certified."

- a. Any paraprofessional hired after January 8, 2002, must have received appropriate training and certification.
- b. No paraprofessional provides tutoring during a time when a student would otherwise be receiving instruction from a teacher; and,
- c. Paraprofessionals be assigned only limited duties consistent with those assigned to similar staff.
