Explanation of the FHSAA EL7 Form

1. The FHSAA is an enforcement/governing organization. Its job is to create a “level playing field” for all high school athletes, so that every student has an opportunity to play high school sports in a fair and competitive environment. If there were no Bylaws governing eligibility, recruiting would be rampant and there would be little opportunity for relatively good players to develop their skills on a high school athletic team. Schools that recruit players are penalized and fined for breaking the Bylaws.

The FHSAA Bylaws and the enforcement of them protect home education students and their teams. Having a level playing field allows students to develop their talents and have the opportunity to compete for state

List the sport(s) that your child is interested in participating in this year. Make sure to consider all of the sports your child might consider participating in as once this form is completed and notarized the sport(s) listed is/are the only sport(s) your child can participate in without having to re-do this form at a later date.

4. Provide the school grade level for the previous school year.
 - a. If your child attended a public or private school last year, select the first choice and give the requested information.
 - b. If your child was registered in a home education program last year, select the second choice and provide the name of the county (or state if different from Florida)
5. Enter the date he/she started 9th grade for the first time. If the student is a middle/junior high school student, leave this blank.

A high school student has only 4 years of eligibility, commencing with the school year in which the student enters the 9th grade for the first. A middle/junior high school student has one and only one year of eligibility per grade level. The FHSAA Bylaws do not allow a student to be retained for any reason for grades 6 - 8. Since no student is eligible for high
