

The Hispanic Heritage Month Essay Contest
In Partnership with the Jacksonville Jaguars Foundation

Dr. Danny Pulido – a Local Hero

Ryleigh Harris
Landon Middle School

Dr. Danny Pulido is a doctor specializing in Pulmonary and Critical Care. He is also a Hispanic American who has made an amazing impact on Jacksonville. His father emigrated from Cuba in 1960, escaping communism, and went to Jacksonville where he finished high school and started working. Dr. Danny's dad left to work on a tobacco farm in Nicaragua, where he also met his wife. When asked what being Hispanic means to him, Dr. Danny said, "doing my best to try and represent my back0.-0.004 Tcw [r)-2t(J0 Tc 0 Tw 7 l3.7(ic)al9-3 ( ).2.2 (,)J0 Tc .5w 1.696 r

Bibliography

Harris, Ryleigh R. "Dr. Danny Pulido." 11 Sept. 2021.

Lawson, Melanie. "Local Doctor Successfully Treated Covid 19 Patient." News 4 JaxThe Morning Show, 23 Mar. 2020, 8:25am, www.news4jax.com/video/video/2020/03/23/local-doctor-successfully-treated-covid-19-patient/.